

Ronnie Sperling

Ronnie attended C.S.U.N. and is a graduate of the acclaimed L.A.C.L.O.. Presently he is the Director of Theatre at University High School and instructor at iLead Charter campuses. A fixture at the acclaimed Teenage Drama Workshop at CSUN since 1986. At T.A.D.W. he has become highly respected for his original musical comedies: "Jules Verne's Around the World in 80 Days", "Cirque des Pirates", "Snow White and the Magnificent Seven", and "Jacques and the Bean Stock". Plans are afoot for these productions to be produced in various regional theatres.

Beginning his career with the acclaimed National Lampoon, Ronnie is a longtime highly respected teacher of improvisational theater in the Los Angeles.

A very popular Director in the Southern California area, Ronnie has recently directed such productions as: "The Fantasticks", "Shrek the Musical", "Disney's The Lion King", "Seussical the Musical", "The Wizard of Oz", "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown", "Disney's High School Musical", "Walt Disney's Jungle Book", "Bullshot Crummond", "My Fair Lady", "Working the Musical", "The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged)", "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory", and "Into the Woods". For the last 13 years Ronnie has been found directing and getting laughs as Noll the Troll in the unique theatre experience, "A Faery Hunt", which has been awarded Nickelodeon's Best Children's Show in Los Angeles multiple times.

On Stage and Screen, Ronnie is a familiar face. Co-starring opposite Motion Picture Legends, Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau in Billy Wilder's final film "Buddy, Buddy" or the big screen favorite: "Transformers". On Television, Ronnie is best remembered for his recurring roles of Chauncey on "Nickelodeon's Zoey 101" and playing opposite Oscar nominee James Franco on "General Hospital". His mug is often seen on commercials: playing the "Other PC" numerous times in the famous Mac vs. PC spots, Capitol One with David Spade, T-Mobile, Disney Channel, Discovery Channel, Holiday Inn, Nintendo, Ball Park Franks, and McDonalds to name but a few.

Theater audiences across the country have enjoyed Ronnie's performances in such shows as: Melvin P. Thorpe in "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas" (with Susan Anton), Gerald in "Me and My Girl", Applegate in "Damn Yankees", Evelyn in "Anything Goes", Frump in "How To Succeed in Business Without Trying", Motel in "Fiddler in the Roof", and Eugene in "Grease" (National Tour), and a dramatic turn as Mr. Franklin in "Children of a Lesser God".

Ronnie and longtime comedy partner, Jerry Hauck spent many years as the in-house comics at The Monte Carlo Hotel in Las Vegas and opening for Dean Martin's Golddiggers. Yeah, those Golddiggers! They travel the country doing Corporate Events and Live Game Shows.

Ronnie is the Producer of the NEW film: "The Cross Up" which this year is making it's way at Film Festivals across the country.

Fun Fact: Ronnie was one of the original writers for cult favorite – "Mighty Morphin' Power Rangers".

For more info on Ronnie go to www.RonnieSperling.net and www.RonnieandJerry.com